

Qualified Institutional Buyers: How Can You Qualify and What Are the Benefits? Speaker Bios

Laurie Brignac, Head of Global Liquidity Portfolio Management, Invesco

Laurie Brignac is Head of Global Liquidity Portfolio Management for Invesco Fixed Income, and is responsible for providing senior management oversight of liquidity products in the US, EMEA and Asia Pacific regions.

Ms. Brignac has been in the investment business since 1989. She joined Invesco in 1992 as a money market trader and was promoted to investment officer in 1994 and senior portfolio manager in 2002. Her duties have expanded to include all forms of short-term fixed income products, including money market and short-duration products. Ms. Brignac has served as a member of the Tri-Party Repo Infrastructure Reform Task Force and participates in various industry committees both in the US and globally. Prior to joining Invesco, Ms. Brignac was a sales assistant for HSBC Securities Inc. She began her career as a money market trader responsible for managing the Fed position at Premier Bank in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Marty Margolis, Managing Director, Public Finance Management (PFM)

Marty is the chief investment officer for PFM Asset Management. He helped found the investment management business for the firm in 1980. Marty has been a leader in the firm's Local Government Investment Pool business, which goes back to 1981 when PFM helped to found the nation's first grass roots local government pool in Pennsylvania. PFM currently provides investment management services for LGIPs in 15 states and manages or oversees the administration of more than $128 billion of fixed income and multi-asset class assets (as of September 30, 2018).

David Stockton, Partner, Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP

David Stockton has advised businesses in all aspects of corporate finance for over 35 years, all at Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton in Atlanta. Mr. Stockton focuses his practice on the full range of securities regulations applicable to public companies and their officers, directors, and principal shareholders. He has represented numerous issuers in initial and secondary public offerings as well as private placements of securities. He has also represented many public company boards and has dealt with all aspects of public company corporate governance.