STATE TREASURERS

National Association of State Treasurers Elects Incoming Executive Leaders

(Washington, DC, September 23, 2021) - Following a vote at the Annual Meeting of the National Association of State Treasurers this week in Chicago, the below Treasurers were elected to fill the executive positions of leadership with the association beginning January 1, 2022.

President

Hon. Shawn Wooden
State of Connecticut

“It’s an honor to be elected to serve as President of NAST,” said State Treasurer Wooden. “I look forward to working closely with State Treasurers across the country as we collaborate to find solutions to some of the most pressing fiscal challenges of our time. Through our diverse experiences and bi-partisan approach, we will continue to be a voice in the U.S. Capitol and put forth policies and programs that strengthen state fiscal management. These focused efforts will benefit residents of Connecticut and those in every corner of our nation.”

Senior Vice President

Hon. Josh Haeder
State of South Dakota

“It has been an honor to serve NAST over the last year and I am looking forward to this next step as Senior Vice President”, commented Treasurer Haeder. “I am honored by the faith my colleagues have put in me to help lead this organization, especially in programming and conference planning over the next year.”

Secretary-Treasurer

Hon. Michael Frerichs
State of Illinois

“To be elected by my peers to serve as Secretary-Treasurer for NAST is a great honor,” Treasurer Frerichs said. “I look forward to more collaboration with my fellow state leaders to increase efficiencies in government, build stronger communities, and improve the lives of the people in our respective states.”

The following treasurers are serving one-year terms on the NAST Executive Committee representing specific regions around the country:

Eastern Vice President

Hon. Colleen Davis
State of Delaware

Midwestern Vice President

Hon. Sarah Godlewski
State of Wisconsin

Southern Vice President

Hon. David McRae
State of Mississippi

Western Vice President

Hon. Zach Conine
State of Nevada

NAST is thankful for the leadership of these individuals and their dedication to the association. Their term will begin on January 1, 2022. If you have any questions or follow up requests, please contact Catherine Seat at catherine@statetreasurers.org.

About National Association of State Treasurers

The National Association of State Treasurers provides advocacy and support that enables member states to pursue and administer sound financial policies and programs benefiting the citizens of the nation. Membership is composed of all state treasurers or state finance officials with comparable responsibilities from the United States, its commonwealths, territories, and the District of Columbia as well as their staff. The private sector is represented through the Corporate Affiliate Program that was established to build professional relationships and foster cooperation between the public and private sectors. The association serves its members through educational conferences and webinars, a variety of working groups, policy advocacy, and publications that provide information about developments in public finance.
