Your Money Matters

Geared to audiences of varying ages, the Your Money Matters website hosts a library of free resources on financial literacy.

Retirement Guidance

To help state residents plan for retirement, the S.T.A.R.T. \(Save Today and Retire Tomorrow\) site provides podcasts, retirement calculators, and a glossary of key terms.

Finance Your Future

This Finance Your Future site provides a curriculum focused on middle and high school students, with resources for parents, teachers, and other adults as well.

MoneyWise Florida

A new statewide initiative, MoneyWise Florida, represents a partnership among government, financial, insurance, and consumer groups. Beyond general financial literacy resources, it also includes specialized content geared toward helping state residents respond to the financial impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic.

My Money Program

The Department of Financial Services created the My Money Program to provide financial literacy lessons for individuals with developmental disabilities. The program allows individuals to learn and practice financial skills at their own pace, using interactive games, activities, and educational videos. Lessons focus on money basics, banks and credit unions, accounts, budgeting, government benefit programs, and ways to find and keep employment. Parents, guardians, and support providers of individuals with developmental disabilities can also access important information on teaching financial skills, government programs, and information on the different ways to save and invest money. The My Money Program makes financial education accessible, and also provides comprehensive information and resources to empower every Floridian with the knowledge to work toward financial independence.

FUNDING/GOVERNANCE

Financial literacy programs are administered via the Department of Financial Services budget.
