

Financial Education Fact Sheet Series: INDIANA

The office of Treasurer Kelly Mitchell strives to provide valuable resources to Hoosiers in all walks of life seeking to improve their financial literacy.

nast.org/financialwellness/census

CollegeChoice Savings Plan

CollegeChoice is Indiana's 529 plan, administered by the Indiana Education Savings Authority, offering a range of savings portfolios.

Bank On Indiana

Bank On Indiana is a statewide initiative to connect unbanked Hoosiers with local financial institutions and give them an opportunity to open and maintain safe, affordable checking accounts. It aims to help unbanked Hoosiers improve their financial futures, aided by access to free to low-cost checking accounts and financial literacy training. Bank On Indiana was launched in 2009, spearheaded by Office of the Treasurer of Indiana.

Right on the Money

Through a partnership between the Indiana Housing & Community Development Authority, CollegeChoice 529 Savings Plans, and the Treasurer's office, the "Right on the Money" video was produced to explain to young Hoosiers the path of Indiana tax dollars in providing services to residents.

FUNDING/GOVERNANCE

There is no formal governance structure or earmarked funding for financial literacy.

