National Association of State Treasurers Elects Incoming Executive Leaders

(Washington, DC, October, 2026) - Following a vote at the Annual Meeting of the National Association of State Treasurers last week in Detroit, the following State Treasurers were elected to fill the executive positions of leadership with the association beginning January 1, 2027.

President

Hon. Daniel Elliott
State of Indiana

"I'm excited and honored to be able to serve as the next President of NAST and to continue working on projects that benefit all state treasurers. I'd like to thank my colleagues from across the country for their support and confidence."

Senior Vice President

Hon. Erick Russell
State of Connecticut

"I am honored to serve my fellow state treasurers in this national leadership role. State treasurers are committed to safeguarding public resources, protecting taxpayer dollars, and expanding opportunities for families to build financial security. I look forward to continuing to work with my peers across the country to share best practices, advance sound public policy, and ensure our voices are represented in national policy discussions."

Secretary-Treasurer

Hon. Steven Johnson
State of Kansas

"The collaboration and high-quality educational resources NAST provides are incredibly important. My engagement with NAST and other Treasurers over the past three and a half years has made me a better fiduciary for the people of Kansas. I am grateful for the confidence my colleagues have placed in me and look forward to working with them to ensure NAST continues to provide meaningful professional value to all of its members."

The following State Treasurers will serve one-year terms on the NAST Board of Directors representing specific regions around the country:

Eastern Vice President

Hon. Stacy Garrity
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Midwestern Vice President

Hon. Joey Spellerberg
State of Nebraska

Southern Vice President

Hon. David Richardson
Commonwealth of Virginia

Western Vice President

Hon. Laura Montoya
State of New Mexico

NAST is thankful for the leadership of these individuals and their dedication to the association. Their term will begin on January 1, 2027 and run through the end of the year. If you have any questions or follow up requests, please contact Catherine Seat at catherine@statetreasurers.org.

About National Association of State Treasurers

The National Association of State Treasurers provides advocacy and support that enables member states to pursue and administer sound financial policies and programs benefiting the citizens of the nation. Membership is composed of all state treasurers or state finance officials with comparable responsibilities from the United States, its commonwealths, territories, and the District of Columbia as well as their staff. The private sector is represented through the Corporate Affiliate Program that was established to build professional relationships and foster cooperation between the public and private sectors. The association serves its members through educational conferences and webinars, a variety of working groups, policy advocacy, and publications that provide information about developments in public finance.
