

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF STATE TREASURERS

State Treasurers' Statement In Support of Israel During Terrorist Attacks

(October 11, 2023, Washington, DC) - On behalf of the National Association of State Treasurers, President and South Dakota Treasurer Josh Haeder along with Senior Vice President and Illinois State Treasurer Michael Frerichs, Secretary-Treasurer and North Dakota State Treasurer Thomas Beadle, and Past-President and Massachusetts State Treasurer and Receiver General Deborah B. Golberg have issued the following statement on the ongoing attacks to the state of Israel:

"We condemn the violence that has been perpetrated against the people of Israel. In the face of such terrorism, we stand united with the Israeli people. State Treasurers across the country invest in Israel both with dollars and with our commitment to seeing the country prosper and thrive. The recent attacks and aggression bring unimaginable heartache to families both in Israel and abroad, and we send our deepest sympathy and condolences to those affected by these unspeakable acts."

About National Association of State Treasurers

The National Association of State Treasurers provides advocacy and support that enables member states to pursue and administer sound financial policies and programs benefiting the citizens of the nation. Membership is composed of all state treasurers or state finance officials with comparable responsibilities from the United States, its commonwealths, territories, and the District of Columbia as well as their staff. The private sector is represented through the Corporate Affiliate Program that was established to build professional relationships and foster cooperation between the public and private sectors. The association serves its members through educational conferences and webinars, a variety of working groups, policy advocacy, and publications that provide information about developments in public finance.
